

The Recruitment Experts

Kickstarter Campaign

"The Recruitment Experts' Kickstarter Campaign is designed to accelerate your business launch, providing new recruitment partners with essential contracts and roles from the start to ensure a faster path to success."

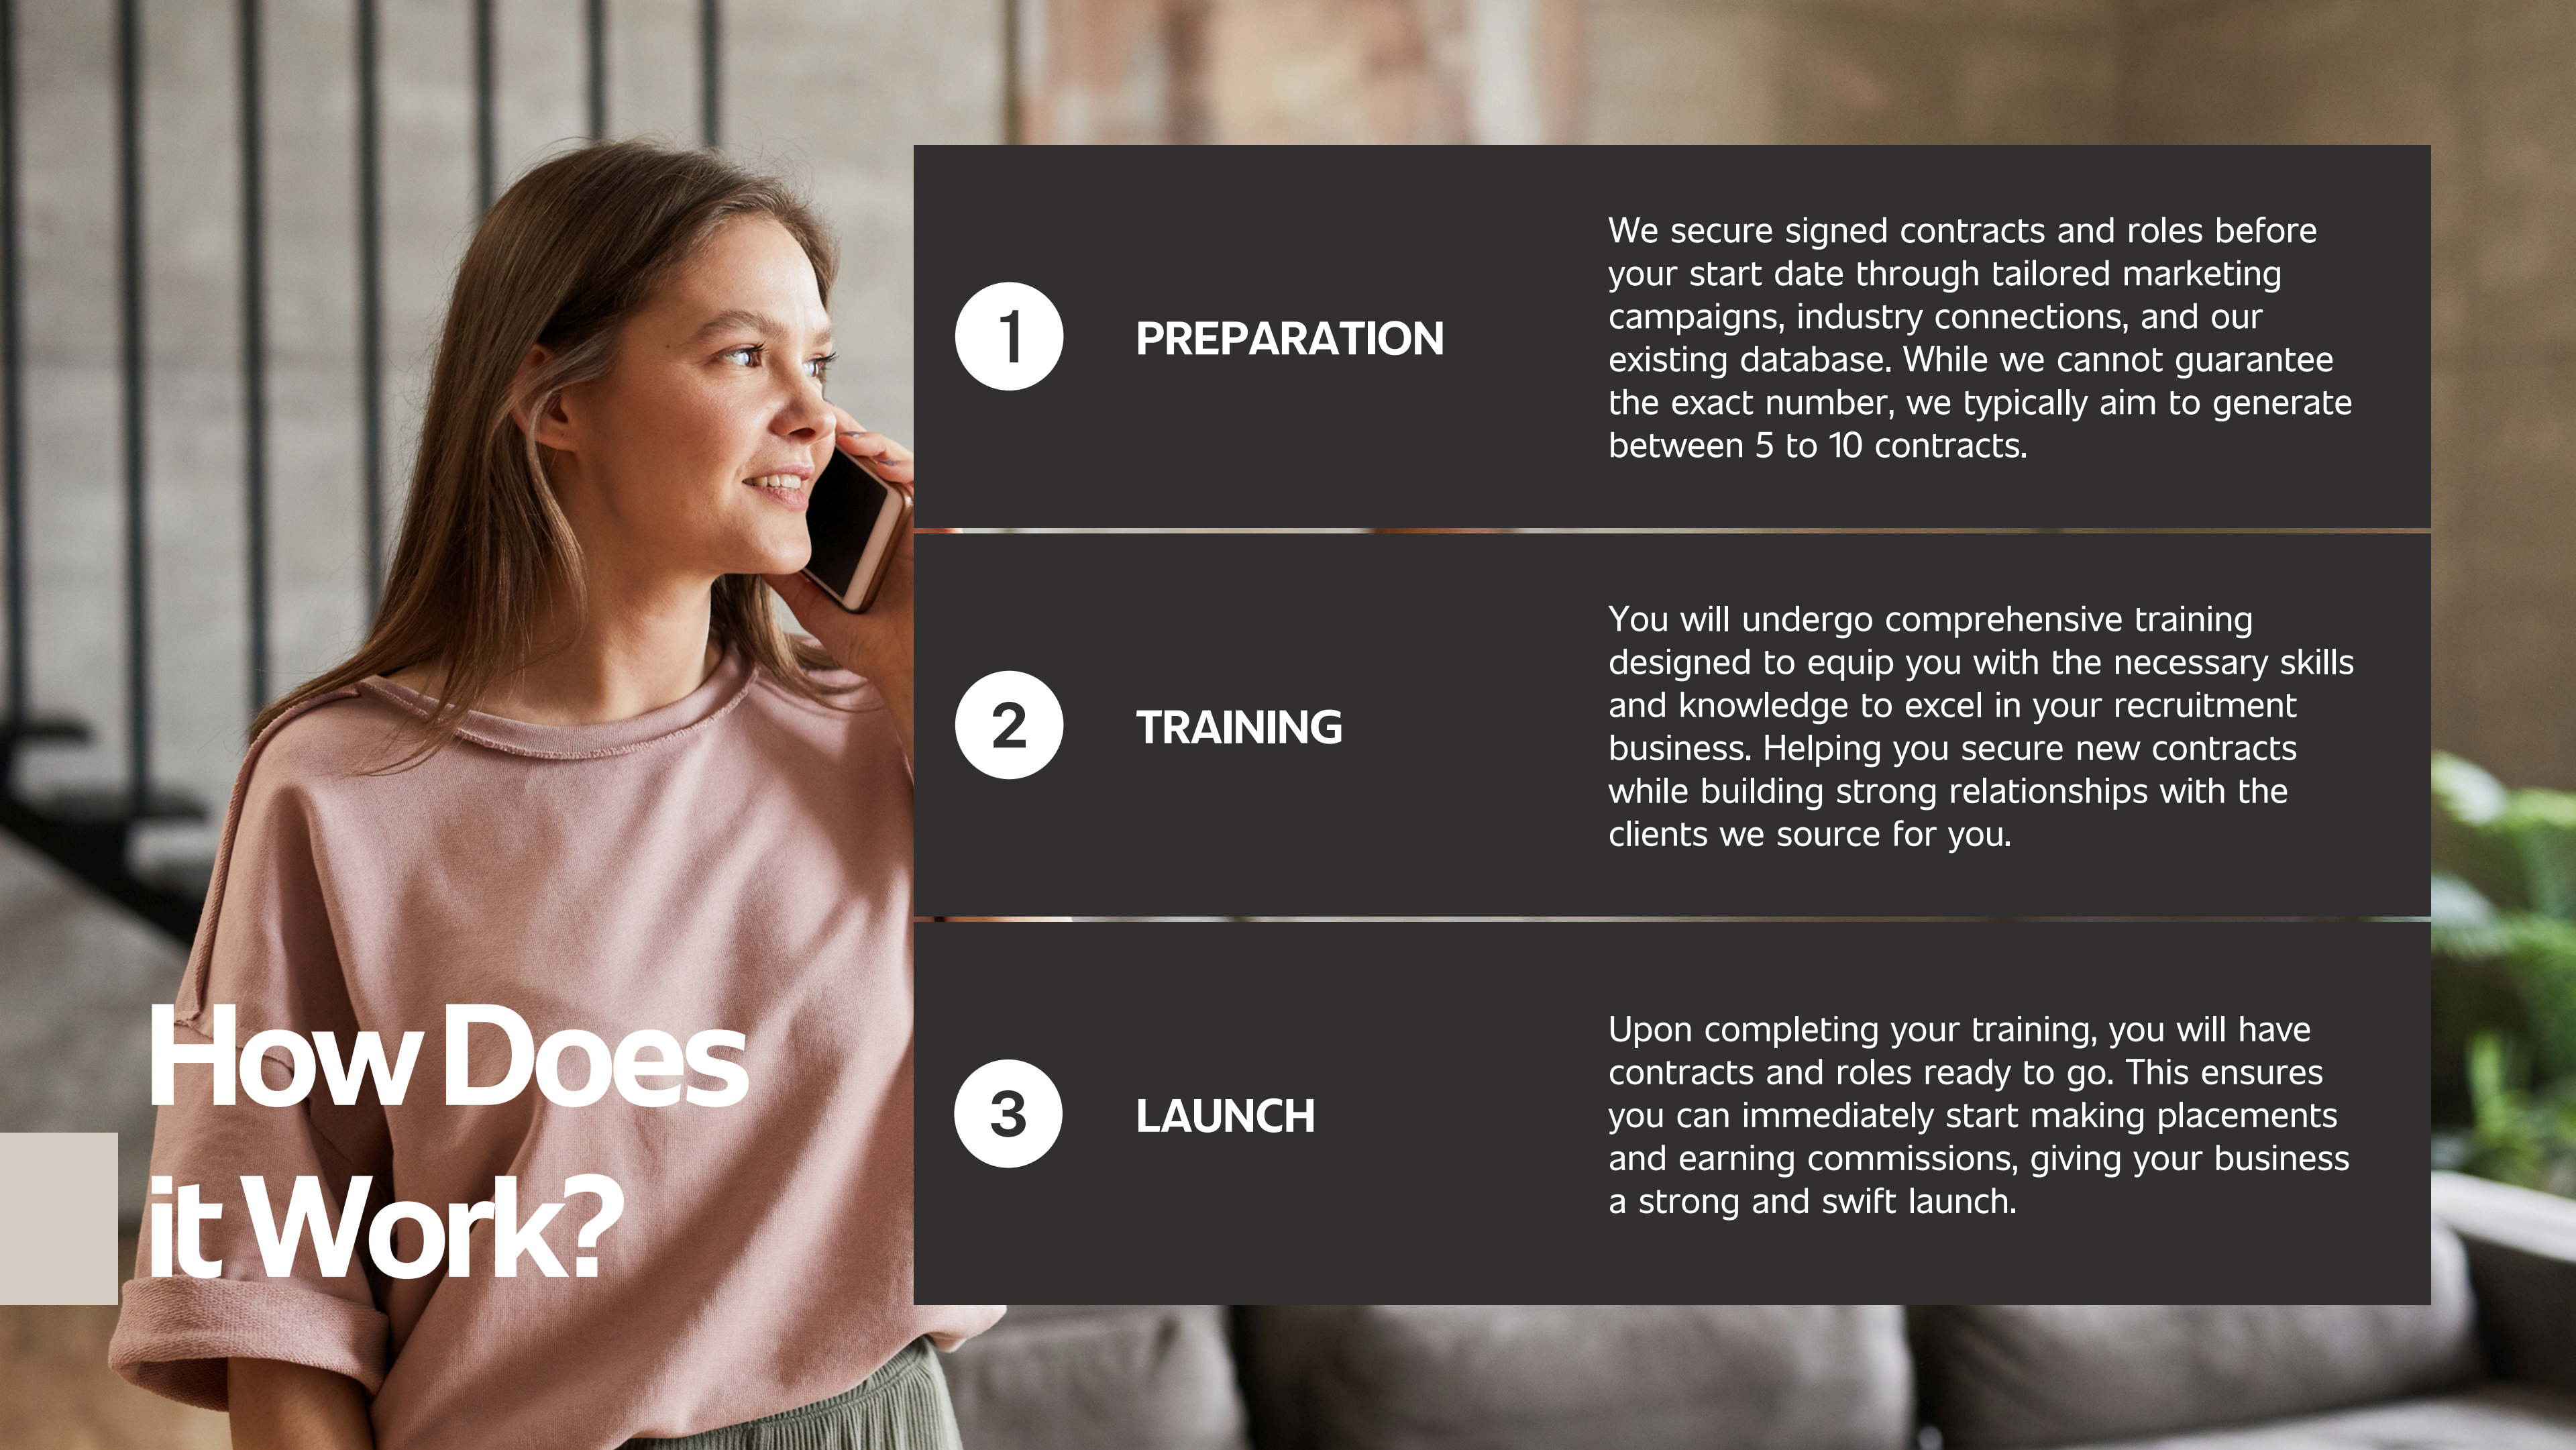

Speeding up Success

The initial phase of recruitment can be the most time-intensive, involving finding contracts, building connections, and securing roles. While success often follows, the timeframe can vary significantly for each individual.

The Recruitment Experts Kickstarter Campaign mitigates these initial challenges by providing new partners with roles and signed contracts before they begin. By leveraging marketing campaigns, existing connections, and our head office database, we ensure you have the opportunities needed to hit the ground running.

How Does it Work?

1 PREPARATION

We secure signed contracts and roles before your start date through tailored marketing campaigns, industry connections, and our existing database. While we cannot guarantee the exact number, we typically aim to generate between 5 to 10 contracts.

2 TRAINING

You will undergo comprehensive training designed to equip you with the necessary skills and knowledge to excel in your recruitment business. Helping you secure new contracts while building strong relationships with the clients we source for you.

3 LAUNCH

Upon completing your training, you will have contracts and roles ready to go. This ensures you can immediately start making placements and earning commissions, giving your business a strong and swift launch.

What Does it Cost?

There is no upfront cost for the Kickstarter Campaign.

We recognise the importance of preserving your savings as you begin your business. Therefore, all contracts we sign on your behalf will yield you 50% of the fee for the first six months, compared to the usual 70%.

This structure is temporary, designed to support your initial growth. After six months, you will revert to earning 70% on all contracts regardless of where they were sourced.

"Our Kickstarter Campaign is designed to give new recruiters the best possible start. We invest in your success by securing initial contracts and roles, allowing you to focus on building your business without financial stress."

FAQ's

Q: I earn 50% on contracts you source for me. What about the others?

A: You earn 70% on all contracts you source for yourself.

Q: How many contracts can I expect?

A: While we can't guarantee a specific number, on average, we aim for 5-10 contracts. This estimate is based on a 30-day lead time between signing your contract and starting with us.

Q: What fees will be charged to the clients you source?

A: Fees typically range from 10% to 13.5%, depending on the area. We will always aim to secure a competitive rate, but they can always be re-negotiated later to align with your business plan and growth strategy.

Q: Can I change my mind before I start if I want to opt in or out?

A: Yes, within limits, dependant on the time, results and resource available and invested.

Is Kickstarter for You?

Remember, the Kickstarter Campaign is optional and designed as an additional resource to help you succeed. On average, participants can expect to secure their first deal within 4 to 5 weeks, providing a strong start with long-term contracts that can benefit your business for years to come.

Consider whether this accelerated path aligns with your goals and decide if it's the right fit for you and your business. Ultimately, the decision is yours. Assess your goals, current resources, and long-term plans to determine if the Kickstarter Campaign is the right fit for you and your business.
